The Wyker Victorian House is a two and one half storey brick structure built during the late 19th century or early 20th century. The gable end of this protustion has a one storey bay window with inset panels below the windows. The house has a gable roof covered with wood shingles. High in each gable is ome saw toothed ginger bread. The house has a stone foundation and a cellar. On the west gable is an exterior and chimney built of brick.

To the rear of the house is a small one storey frame building with board and batten siding, it also has a gab le roof with wood shingles.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Wyker House is one of several Victorian type houses in the Calvert area. It is not one of the better examples of that time period, but does contribute to the village atmosphere. It is well maintained and in good condition.
